OTTAWA'S EXCESS PROFITS TAX

HON. J. L. HAWLEY

Dominion revenue minister who presented Canada's war budget in parliament Tuesday. Partial text of his budget speech will be found on page 2.

Budgets

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—The war-time budget delivered in the House of Commons today disclosed an excess profits tax will be levied by the government on all business and additional taxes will be placed on incomes, all alcoholic and aerated beverages, tea, coffee and tobacco to meet war costs.

With an estimated deficit for the current fiscal year, including war costs up to March 31, 1940, of $136,000,000, the Minister announced plans to meet a large portion of it out of increased taxes on luxuries and excess profits.

All businesses, whether incorporated or not, will pay a tax ranging from 10 per cent to 60 per cent of profits ranging in excess of five per cent of 25 per cent of capital, or an alternative tax of 50 per cent on all profits in excess of the average for the last four years.

Individual and corporate income taxes are increased, the former by a surtax of 30 per cent of the total normally paid, and the latter by three per cent over the present level.

Domestic and imported spirits will be taxed an additional $3 per gallon excise duty on excess tax on all wines is doubled, the excise duty on imported beers increased by nine cents a gallon and corresponding increases made in the excise duty on malt, multi-grain and beer brewed from other than malt.

No change was made in the sales tax but some exemptions were removed including electricity and used for domestic purposes.

Excise duties on cigarettes will be increased by $1 per 1,000 and on tobacco by five cents a pound.

Aerating preparations going into the manufacture of soft drinks will be taxed two cents per pound.

Customs tariff rates on tea will be increased five cents a pound from 10 to 15 cents, 15 cents when involved up to 45 cents a pound, and 45 cents when involved at 45 cents or more a pound.

Coffee, now generally exempted from duty, will be increased by a straight 10 cents a pound under all tariffs.

Following is an unofficial summary of the tax changes:

1.—Excess profits tax: new legislation imposed a tax on excess profits of all businesses whether individual or corporate.

No large scale borrowing operations anticipated until after initial period of war-time expansion well under way.

Government will not be "timid" in dealing with taxation has reached the limit beyond which it cannot go without producing inefficiency and lack of enterprise.

A small and carefully regulated amount of credit expansion may be necessary.

ARMES EMBARGO OF U. S. ALLOWS ITALO PURCHASES

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Extension of the arms embargo to Canada upon the Dominion's entry into the war has been announced by the United States government today.

"Canada," the newspaper commented, "which needs airplanes in the first instance not for any expeditionary overseas but for the protection of her own defence, cannot buy airplanes in the United States even for this latter purpose."

"But Italy, being still a neutral, though an open ally of Germany, is at liberty to buy all the American planes she wants and to take advantage of this opportunity to put her own manufacturing facilities at the service of her ally."

The time added, "but it is not 'neutrality'."

BUDAPEST, Sept. 12.—Polish army general headquarters asserted today that Warsaw's German headquarters had been pushed back "far into the outskirts of the capital."

A communique broadcast from the radio station at Lwow said the nearest German troops were some six miles from the centre of the city. It said the push was "devastating" with the aid of heavy Polish reinforcements which were sent to Warsaw from the south.

RUFAEST, Sept. 12.—The Polish general staff's communique No. 11, broadcast today, declared that Polish resistance had brought the German plane, tank and artillery attacks at least to a temporary stalemate throughout a widespread battle zone.

In an early morning broadcast, Polish troops were said by the Warsaw station to have stopped the Germans at their tracks.

"Tommys" Now In France To Fight German On West Front

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The British people, 10 days at war and ready for long years of it, waited today on the first trickle of news to tell them that British troops and planes were now in France to fight Germany on the western front.

Official dispatches that an expeditionary force had been sent to France was made in communique which said troops have landed but some lack of information is new permitted in France officially that this is so.

Believing every citizen should be glad to share the cost of the war, Mr. Hawley said the government would "insist on the principle of equality of sacrifice on the basis of the ability to pay."

SAARBRUECKEN OTTAWA LEVIES THREATENED BY FRENCH TROOPS

German Onslaught Being Seriously Hurdled Back East of That City

"A calm night along the entire front."

Fighting on a 10-mile sector in the western front, where the Meuse and Rhine rivers, strengthening the impression a major battle was shaping up—engagement which history may record as the battle of the Saar.

British troops were reported moving up into position already established by the French.

"Despite enemy resistance our attacks continue to show serious losses on a front some 20 miles east of the Saar," said this night's war communiqué. "The night was calm on the entire front."

Last night's announcement was taken to mean the French were gaining a point some distance north of the French border of Sarreguemines in the German line between the Saar and Rhine rivers. The Saar runs north from Sarreguemines to the French border, after which it flows into the Rhine.

BITTER FIGHTING

British fighting also was reported in the area north of Sierck, further where the Saar was flowing, cutting northward to parallel the Meuse river along the frontier of Belgium principally in the German line.

"The German line was said to be held by young recruits because the frontiers were engaged in a Polish offensive on the other side.

German divisions were said to have been directed already to the western front to meet the French-British thrust.

German Expecting
Big French Drive

By CHARLES FOLTZ
Associated Press Staff Writer

BADEL, Switzerland, Sept. 12.—Reports of a German troop movement from Baden northwest toward the Saar in the west border observers today as an indication the Germans are expecting a big French drive.

Baden is near the point where the Rhine territory along the border of the Rhine was taken by the French. It is about 100 miles north of the French border.

The development eased the Swiss worry that the army might be forced to cross a corner of Switzerland to outflank the enemy.

Another indication that the French are about to open an offensive against the German line, said the line was seen in reports of a concentration of mobile equipment at certain points of the Rhine line.

LITTLE USE

Swiss equipment has been of little use to the French as far as the line, the methodical maneuvering for position which has been reported thus far. It would play a major role when and if the French break through the main German line.

Reports reaching Zurich from Germany today said that the German schools in the Berlin districts have been converted into hospitals to accommodate wounded soldiers in the capital from both the eastern and western fronts.

CENSORSHIP OF NEWS ATTACKED IN EDITORIAL

LEIPS, Sept. 12.—The Yorkshire Post, in an editorial captioned "censorship today,"

"We do urge that there should be introduced some power of imagination in dealing with news and, at the very least, uniformity."

"But the censorship as at present exists is not only a disadvantage in this country, it is having a most serious effect in countries yet unborn."

"We believe it to be the case that no newspaper in this country is hindered consistently friendly to the British and French governments, and the attractions to suspend their own services to London because of the censorship available to them."

"The censorship is a hindrance to the world as a whole, and it is not to be worth the cost of the censorship at all, or to be delivered as to be worthless when it is received."

On the eastern front, the Polish resistance was greater than the Germans at first believed. The Polish resistance was greater than the Germans at first believed.

Three circumstances dampened the expectation that, after initial successes, the Germans would capture Warsaw by the end of the month.

PRESENT PLAN OF RECRUITING IS STATIONARY

Defence Minister States Military Districts To Raise Battalions

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—Hon. Ian Maclean, defence minister, said in a statement last night the detail was not considered the best possible results for mobilization of the non-permanent militia could be obtained only by working through the various military districts throughout Canada.

The former method, used extensively during the first world war, of raising independent battalions by private individuals has been abandoned.

"For reasons which will appear obvious to those who served in the last war, it is not considered desirable or practicable to set up new units without the regular army framework," the minister said.

"The reorganization of the militia is a major task in the present war, whereby a number of units were reduced and a better allocation of military services provided, part of the general mobilization scheme."

"Provision for raising battalions of units, or even for recruiting, no longer has the same importance as it had in the past, so that responsibility, so matter how well-intentioned, cannot be placed on the militia."

"The effort of the department of national defence and possibly the militia is to ensure that the militia is in a position to discuss the war and listen to the radio."

"The militia is already functioning so well."

Inflationary trends of financing a war described as "most unfair and unequitable of all methods of financing a war."

Despite Canada's public debt and deficit, in most other respects, Canada is in a better position than at start of first Great War.

Borrowing operations expected to be continued, but not to the extent of the first Great War.

"What we cannot meet by taxation, we shall finance by means of borrowing, and we shall pay the public at a rate as low as possible."

"Because we believe it is the part of wisdom, we shall follow as far as possible the principle of a pay-as-you-go system."

"In imposing the new tax burdens which this policy might require, we shall be guided by the principle of the equality of sacrifice on the basis of ability to pay."

"We must not lose sight of the full realization that we may be in for years of strenuous effort."

"Our own expenditures on defence and preparation will furnish an important stimulus to the expansion of economic activity."

"There will be two additional sources of stimulus, first, the orders which we expect some of our allies to place in Canada for foodstuffs, raw materials and munitions; and secondly, the private capital expenditures which will probably be increased in order to place our industry on a basis of equality to meet war requirements."

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly

These Sad Days
New Sportdom
U.S. Grid Flashes

THESE ARE SAD DAYS in the sport world. You may be a sports fan, but you are not only missing the excitement of the game, but you are also missing the excitement of the game.

The boys whose business it is to do up world events, insist that we are not only missing the excitement of the game, but we are also missing the excitement of the game.

With that new order will come a new spirit. Right now, the world is in a state of confusion, and the only way to get out of it is to get back to the old ways.

There is a new order in the world, and it is a good one. It is a new order that will bring us back to the old ways, and it is a good one that will bring us back to the old ways.

There are many things that are happening in the world, and it is a good one. It is a new order that will bring us back to the old ways, and it is a good one that will bring us back to the old ways.

Picture In The Crystal Ball

IT IS A PICTURE IN THE CRYSTAL BALL, and it is a good one. It is a new order that will bring us back to the old ways, and it is a good one that will bring us back to the old ways.

Winter will find fancy skating, speed skating, racing, skiing, figure skating, and many other sports. Hockey, for the first time, will be a major winter sport.

This picture of the probable future takes the gloom out of the present sport scene. It is something worth working and thinking for.

The experts sound of the line figure that Minnesota's chances of repeating as Big Ten champion depend entirely on how much of a line coach Bertie Brennan can hold in front of each side's backfielders as Harold Van Ardy, Marty Christensen, George Frank and several others.

Minnesota, Michigan, Purdue and Wisconsin are listed as the most likely to dominate the Big Ten. Minnesota is the favorite, followed by Michigan, Purdue and Wisconsin.

Yanks Due to Lift Pennant By Saturday

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The last major intercontinental of the big league battle grounds today, with the pennant pretty certain to go to the lads who hold their own in this final swing around the circuits.

The prospects are New York Yankees will have won their fourth straight American league flag before Saturday night. The Yankees, waiting along on an eight-game winning streak and a 17-game lead, despite Boston's 11-9 victory over the Athletics yesterday, need but four more victories to clinch.

LEGION WINS CRICKET TITLE

WANDERERS ARE EASILY ELIMINATED

Croft, Hendra, Edwards Set Pace as Legion Cops Decisive Win

The Edmonton Cricket League championship was placed beyond doubt over the weekend when the Legion inflicted a severe defeat on the Wanderers eleven. Ormer was the lone and sent in Parker and Tipple, but disaster came like a bolt when Tipple was clean bowled by Croft with the first ball of the game.

The following batsmen, however, went down and gave every promise of giving the Legion a tough game, Stuart, Collins, Watt and Ormer getting double figures. Watt's innings was by far the best and placed his team in a good position to put up a good score, with the board reading 100 for 5. Things looked promising. A change of ends for Grant, however, changed the whole aspect of the innings and the side was dismissed for 122.

An object lesson in forcing the pace was put up by Croft, Hendra and Edwards in the Legion innings. A thorough understanding in running between wickets and judicious placing of the ball for angles when the field were forced back, opened the way to fast scoring and later, being cricket.

In an innings of an hour and fifteen minutes, 151 runs were put on. Croft being undefeated with 85, Hendra got 21 and Thompson declared the innings closed when Edwards was caught by Watt off Hendra after a well played innings of 54.

Spotlighting the Sport Girl

WE HAVE been thinking during recent days of the old saying, "a cat enough rope and it will hang itself," and "chickens come home to roost." All this by practicing the old-time custom of some political leaders in laying clippings from newspapers side by side and comparing. Recall how Alexander Gibb, the Toronto sports columnist, supported more votes for Ontario than the smaller membership provinces in the Women's Amateur Federation?

There is an election coming along for the Ontario branch and Miss Gibb apparently has a list of officers chosen for the next term and is much perturbed because softball and basketball have more votes than the track and field teams. Miss Gibb pleads to the effect that all affiliated sports should in Ontario have equal vote. But in the Dominion? Oh, no!

Miss Gibb is a Toronto Star writer, and now comes Andy Lyle of the same sheet, within under a five-column, seven-inch illustration of the English beauty, schoolgirl cricket jump there in which he uses such terms as "General's breath, her complexion, well-balanced legs, charming daintiness, etc. and winds up with his daughter's comment, "I don't forget for certain items he has written about feminine sports, some of which we have just laid alongside the above mentioned effusion.

"Now there," I pontificated, leaving the scene with a shiver, "my young daughter is not for girls to play. Face leisurely; practically no physical or mental strain, National, and all that." "Dad," said she candidly, "you're nuts."

Considerable is being mentioned about sport, both masculine and feminine, to follow in supporting the morale of military efforts as indicated necessary for what appear to be an indefinite period. A friend mentions a collection of medals not from the world's war sports by Rio Halibut, but by the Red Cross, and we hope to be able to call on the gentleman some day for our own inspection of some.

Stella Walsh, the Polish world champion, temperately of Cleveland, is reported to have cleaned up the program of the American women's meet at Waterloo, Connecticut, last week. Have not learned as yet how much competition she had, but noticed that she had no more reported time was less than a second faster than that published as accomplished by Miss Pat Turner, of Calgary, at the Alberta provincial meet last week. Miss Walsh's time was up to her own world's record, however.

The Chicago world's softball championship game officials are perturbed because these mean little things of Canada having outside at the coming series. Canadian team seem to think that the rules and conditions of play do not warrant such entries.

It is Buffalo, New York, turn to appear at Madison Square Garden this week in the invitational series of softball games, and to stand behind as per hockey. It is a call did not get out to Toronto players to strengthen the Buffalo team.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(Sec-)

ary Corbett Hull of the state department does not foresee any difficulty in enforcing the United States

Neutrality Act embargo on ship-

the 300 miles of common frontier

At his press conference Monday

the secretary was asked if the long

Mr. Hull said the federal depart-rigid application of the Act, but he added that he did not expect any violations to be attempted.

No official word has been re-

Polish Women's Legion Prepared To Enter Firing Line Warsaw Buildings Targets Of German Bombers

Typical of the membership of the Polish Women's Legion is this woman soldier shown saluting the flag at the Legion headquarters in London. She is one of the thousands to take their place in the firing line, if and when they are needed to fight for their country's independence.

German fliers made five attempts on Warsaw defences and dropped bombs on the city. At other centres where there were no special defences they bombed ruthlessly. Here are three of their targets: top right, Warsaw Ghetto Theatre; top left, Gdynia, the Baltic seaport, with the Polish shipyard at its dock; lower left, Gdansk, in Northern Poland.

After The Die Was Cast

This momentous picture was made on Sept. 3, showing Prime Minister Chamberlain leaving No. 10 Downing Street, acknowledging the cheers of the crowds, immediately after he had, in a radio talk to the nation, announced that England was at war with Germany.

The Polish Women's Legion has been kept up and brought to a high state of efficiency. At Lwow, the women mended the guns, stood up to cavalry charges and generally earned the reputation of highest bravery while under fire during the struggle against Russia. Today daughters of these women, top, are preparing for the day when they must again face the guns of an invading army. These bemuddled officers of the Legion, bottom, are veterans of the Polish-Russian struggle and earned their medals on the field of battle. They will be in charge of the Legion to teach the invading forces of Nazi Germany.

A Game Of Tag

An informal introduction during the evacuation of London by women and children is the one between June and Theo, getting acquainted by comparing their identification tags. All children wear tags bearing their names and other necessary information, a necessity when 3,000,000 people, many of them too young to understand what is going on, are shifted from a metropolis to the open country.

B.C. MEMBER ASKS C.E.F. BE ORGANIZED

Demands Expeditionary Trained For Use When Need Arises

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—Howard Green (Cons., Vancouver South) expressed an opinion in the House of Commons Monday, while members of financing Canada's part in the second Great War were being considered, that a Canadian expeditionary force should be recruited and trained at once to be ready when needed abroad.

"I have an old soldier's horror of sending untrained men to war," he said. "You cannot get an expeditionary force overnight."

Mr. Green said there was no hesitation in Australia or New Zealand on the subject of sending an expeditionary force. Canada, nearer Europe and with more natural protection, should take the lead.

"Unless there was a clearer declaration from the government on this point, Mr. Green said he was afraid the impression would go abroad that 'we' in this parliament are half-hearted in our conduct of the war."

"If we leave this question of an expeditionary force in the air," said Mr. Green, "I believe we shall have a rapid falling off in recruiting and a rapid decline in the morale of our people."

Canadian armies and squadrons should serve as Canadians. In several squadrons and should not be sent to fight in the British forces, he declared.

U. S. WILL BUILD MERCHANT SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The United States maritime commission, taking cognizance of a possible shortage in ocean going tonnage because of the war, moved Monday to speed up its program to expand the nation's merchant marine.

Neutrality Would Be Dishonorable Smuts Declares

He reiterated that South African troops would be used only for home defense purposes.

Foreign Diplomats Have Hard Time Following Polish Government

By ELMER PETERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer
SMATYK, Poland, Sept. 12.—By entering the Polish-Rumanian frontier—because they must follow the government to which they have been assigned, foreign diplomats with their families and staffs have experienced travelling hardship in a 400-mile trek from Warsaw to this tiny village not far from the Russian frontier.

The expatriates they have gone through make up one of the most amazing chapters of the Polish underground war in Poland.

I followed the trek of the diplomats. I saw them, utterly exhausted, sleeping in ditches beside their parked automobiles. I have seen them pedalling bicycles or doing more walking in a day than they would ordinarily in a year.

FRENCH WOMAN HURT
On a rainy road last Friday night a car carrying the French flag caught up to a ditch as the driver, a French woman, was overtaken.

Quebec Justice Condemns Lawyers' Sentiments
MONTREAL, Sept. 12.—A. E. Greenblatt, chief justice of the Quebec superior court, condemned Monday what he described as "ill-judged sentiments" expressed by certain members of the provincial bar who he said had "refused to serve their King in an hour of dire need."

The chief justice, opening the fall superior court sessions, did not identify the men he criticized but it was believed he referred to lawyers who had signed from the public platform that Canada take no part in the war.

"I would refer to these gentlemen that when they were admitted as members of the profession of law they took an oath of allegiance to His Majesty the King," Mr. Justice Greenblatt said. "It is indeed a strange anomaly to honor that oath by refusing to serve their King in an hour of dire need."

North Bay Baby Burned To Death

COMMISSIONERS MAY BE NAMED TO DOMINIONS

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—Canada may appoint high commissioners in Australia, New Zealand and the other Dominions, Prime Minister King told the House of Commons last night. Provision for the appointments may come out of the $100,000,000 war appropriation now before the house.

"Since the outbreak of war there is a more pressing than ever for rapid communication between Dominions," said Mr. Mackenzie King, "and effective co-operation would be furthered if we had high commissioners in the other Dominions as well as in London."

VICTORIA WILL CLOSELY CHECK INCOMING SHIPS

Manitoba Retains Lower Milk Price

WINNIPEG, Sept. 12.—Retail price of butter in Vancouver advanced two cents per pound Monday, bringing the rise to four cents during the past week. The advance followed the rise of 10 to 11 cents in Winnipeg. The first order was issued because the Board ruled that milk prices should be increased one cent for the winter months, but milk distributors refused to charge the higher rate.

FARMER LOSES EQUIPMENT IN SUNDAY BLAZE

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

A team of horses in the barn at the time of the fire was taken out by Archie Rankin, while a fire-truck was sent through the efforts of Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Green and Mrs. W. A. Halliwell. The fire is believed just as the start of the annual memorial service of the church.

"Empire Has Decided," Says London Paper in Discussing Alignment

LONDON, Sept. 12.—"The empire has decided," the Daily Telegraph (conservative) said today, discussing Canada's decision to enter the war, and the alignment of the Dominions with Great Britain.

"What form the Dominion may take for the decision of their own governments," the newspaper said, "The New Zealand cabinet has already announced that it will raise military forces to serve within or without the country. It is a gallant deed, and the stretched fields of Gallipoli and France have shown the value of New Zealand troops."

SOVIET CLAIMS TRADE HIT BY BRITISH ACTS

Asserts British Firms Have Cancelled Orders Placed By Russia

MOSCOW, Sept. 12.—Further evidence of resistance by Poland against German forces is regarded by the Soviet press as reprehensible. This view was expressed by both Krestin, the government organ, and Pravda, Communist Party publication.

Pravda continued Poland had lost nearly her entire military economic base. The paper listed as contributing factors Poland's failure to create a sufficient number of fortified areas on its western frontier; Germany's superiority in the air and the technical equipment of her land forces, especially in the quality of tanks and heavy artillery.

RELATIONS VIOLATED
An assertion by Pravda that Great Britain and France had failed to give effective aid to Poland followed upon yesterday's Soviet press charge that Britain had violated friendly relations with the Soviet Union. A statement by Tass, official Soviet news agency, asserted several British firms had canceled production of lathes and presses ordered by the Soviet Union.

"The action of English firms in showing 'no trade' between the USSR and England," Tass said, "is a direct violation of the terms of the 1925 trade agreement."

TROOPS MOVE WEST
Although Russia maintained an outward calm, there were indications she was getting ready for any emergency. Thousands of reserve troops were moved to the western frontier in connection with what Tass called the "move and more wide and threatening character" of the German-Polish war.

Germans on the west were strengthened as the possibility appeared that Germany—with her reserves—would establish a common frontier with the Soviet Union.

WIDOW OF LATE CITY LAWYER IS BELIEVED LOST

Mrs. Sophie McDonald, widow of the late C. de W. McDonald, K.C., well known to many lawyers, who died here during the World War, is believed to have lost her life when the S.S. Athens was torpedoed off the British Islands last week. She left Toronto the latter part of July for England where she spent the summer, intending to sail home on the Athens, according to Mrs. Vernon Burford, 3108 106 street, friend of Mrs. McDonald.

Thankful for the attention of Mrs. Burford, James Smith, Hudson's Bay Company past manager at Whitefish Lake, who had been at home from Scotland, is glad his memory failed him on one occasion. Fearing for the safety of his family, while in Aberdeen, he asked a stampholder official to arrange early passage to Canada, just as he was about to leave his address, and shortly after left. Accommodation was not to be found prior to the sailing of the Athens, which was the last of the ship sailing in advance of the Athens.

Mrs. Smith and his family arrived in Quebec Sunday night, only a few hours before British troops were on the march in Germany. "We did not know what had happened to my husband," he said.

It is anticipated that counsel for the accused will appear and make motions for adjournment, and the charges will then be set out until the January session.
